The Resurrection

Our Glorified Bodies, and How Yahshua Showed Us

A Midrash Study on 1 Corinthians 15, the Risen Messiah, and the Hope of Israel

Scripture quoted from the World English Bible, divine name rendered YHWH, Elohim, and Adonai, with the Son's name rendered Yahshua and Messiah. Part two of two. Companion study: Heaven Comes to Earth.

THE HEART OF IT

In Heaven Comes to Earth we saw where the people of YHWH will live forever: in the New Jerusalem, on a renewed earth, with Elohim dwelling among them. This study asks the next question. In what kind of body?

Scripture does not leave us guessing. John says we will be like him (1 John 3:2), and then the Gospels spend forty days showing us exactly what he was like after he rose. He ate. He was touched. He kept his scars. He walked through locked doors. He cooked breakfast. Yahshua's risen body is the preview of ours.

SECTION I

The Hope Was Always a Body

The resurrection is not a New Testament idea added on top of the old one. It is the hope of Israel from the beginning. Paul stood before Felix and said he had hope toward Elohim, which these also themselves look for, that there will be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust (Acts 24:15). Look at how far back it goes.

> But as for me, I know that my Redeemer lives. In the end, he will stand upon the earth. After my skin is destroyed, then I will see Elohim in my flesh, whom I, even I, will see on my side. My eyes will see, and not as a stranger.
> JOB 19:25-27

Job does not expect to see Elohim as a floating spirit. In my flesh, my eyes, I, even I. The Septuagint makes it even plainer in verse 26: ἀναστῆσαι τὸ δέρμα μου, anastēsai to derma mou, to raise up my skin, using the same verb family as anastasis, resurrection. And Job puts his Redeemer standing upon the earth.

> Your dead shall live. My dead bodies shall arise. Awake and sing, you who dwell in the dust; for your dew is like the dew of herbs, and the earth will cast out the departed spirits.
> ISAIAH 26:19

My dead bodies is נבלתי, nevelati, my corpses. Isaiah is talking about bodies in graves. The Septuagint reads: ἀναστήσονται οἱ νεκροί, καὶ ἐγερθήσονται οἱ ἐν τοῖς μνημείοις, the dead shall rise, and those in the tombs shall be raised, using both of the New Testament's resurrection words, anistēmi and egeirō, side by side.

> Many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth will awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. Those who are wise will shine as the brightness of the expanse. Those who turn many to righteousness will shine as the stars forever and ever.
> DANIEL 12:2-3

Sleep is ישני, yeshenei, those who sleep, and awake is יקיצו, yaqitsu, they will wake up. They sleep in the dust of the earth, which is where bodies are. The Septuagint renders awake as ἀναστήσονται, anastēsontai, they will rise. And verse 3 already tells us something about the glorified body: it will shine.

> Therefore prophesy, and tell them, 'Adonai YHWH says: "Behold, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, my people; and I will bring you into the land of Israel. You will know that I am YHWH, when I have opened your graves, and caused you to come up out of your graves, my people. I will put my Spirit in you, and you will live. Then I will place you in your own land; and you will know that I, YHWH, have spoken it and performed it," says YHWH.' "
> EZEKIEL 37:12-14

> I will ransom them from the power of Sheol. I will redeem them from death! Death, where are your plagues? Sheol, where is your destruction?
> HOSEA 13:14

Here is a Septuagint treasure. The Greek of Hosea 13:14 reads ποῦ ἡ δίκη σου, θάνατε; ποῦ τὸ κέντρον σου, ᾅδη;, O death, where is your penalty? O hades, where is your sting? The word sting, κέντρον, kentron, comes from the Septuagint, and Paul quotes it in his great resurrection chapter: Death, where is your sting? (1 Corinthians 15:55). Paul was reading Hosea, and he heard the resurrection in it.

> As for me, I shall see your face in righteousness. I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with seeing your form.
> PSALM 17:15

David expects to awake and see YHWH's face, and Psalm 16:10 promises that the Holy One would not see corruption, which Peter applies to Yahshua's resurrection (Acts 2:27-31). By Yahshua's day, the hope was so settled that Martha could say it without hesitation:

> Yahshua said to her, "Your brother will rise again." Martha said to him, "I know that he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day." Yahshua said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in me will still live, even if he dies. Whoever lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?"
> JOHN 11:23-26

SECTION II

The Words Themselves

anastasis G386 ἀνάστασις Resurrection, literally a standing up again, from ana (again, up) and histēmi (to stand). The dead do not float up. They stand up.

egeirō G1453 ἐγείρω To raise, to wake. The same verb is used for waking someone out of sleep. 1 Corinthians 15:52: the dead will be raised.

koimaomai G2837 κοιμάομαι To fall asleep. Yahshua's word for death (John 11:11). From the same root comes κοιμητήριον, koimētērion, a sleeping place, which comes into English as cemetery.

yashen / quts H3463, H6974 ישן, קוץ To sleep; to awake. Daniel 12:2; Isaiah 26:19.

Put the words together and you get the whole picture. Death is sleep, the grave is a sleeping place, and resurrection is waking up and standing up again. Where the dead are in the meantime is the subject of our earlier handout, We Do Not Go Up. This study picks up at the moment they wake.

SECTION III

Yahshua the Firstfruits

> But now Messiah has been raised from the dead. He became the first fruits of those who are asleep. For since death came by man, the resurrection of the dead also came by man. For as in Adam all die, so also in Messiah all will be made alive. But each in his own order: Messiah the first fruits, then those who are Messiah's, at his coming.
> 1 CORINTHIANS 15:20-23

First fruits is ἀπαρχή, aparchē. Paul did not pick that word by accident. It is the Septuagint's word in Leviticus 23:10 for the sheaf of firstfruits waved before YHWH:

> "Speak to the children of Israel, and tell them, 'When you have come into the land which I give to you, and shall reap its harvest, then you shall bring the sheaf of the first fruits of your harvest to the priest. He shall wave the sheaf before YHWH, to be accepted for you. On the next day after the Sabbath the priest shall wave it.
> LEVITICUS 23:10-11

The first sheaf of the barley harvest was cut and lifted up before YHWH as the pledge that the whole harvest was coming. Yahshua rose as that sheaf. The tomb was found empty on the first day of the week, the day after the Sabbath, the day of Firstfruits. His resurrection is the first sheaf. Ours is the harvest.

That is also why he is called πρωτότοκος, prōtotokos, the firstborn from the dead (Colossians 1:18; Revelation 1:5). Others had been brought back to life before him: the widow's son, Jairus's daughter, Lazarus. But they were raised back into mortal life, the same kind of body that would one day die again. Yahshua was the first to rise never to die: Messiah, being raised from the dead, dies no more. Death no longer has dominion over him! (Romans 6:9). Resurrection is not being revived. It is being raised beyond the reach of death.

SECTION IV

When It Happens

Paul gives the order in 1 Corinthians 15:23: Messiah the first fruits, then those who are Messiah's, at his coming. The resurrection of believers is tied to one event: his return.

> But immediately after the suffering of those days, the sun will be darkened, the moon will not give its light, the stars will fall from the sky, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken; and then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in the sky. Then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of the sky with power and great glory. He will send out his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they will gather together his chosen ones from the four winds, from one end of the sky to the other.
> MATTHEW 24:29-31

> But we don't want you to be ignorant, brothers, concerning those who have fallen asleep, so that you don't grieve like the rest, who have no hope. For if we believe that Yahshua died and rose again, even so Elohim will bring with him those who have fallen asleep in Yahshua. For this we tell you by the word of Adonai, that we who are alive, who are left until the coming of Adonai, will in no way precede those who have fallen asleep. For Adonai himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel and with Elohim's trumpet. The dead in Messiah will rise first, then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet Adonai in the air. So we will be with Adonai forever.
> 1 THESSALONIANS 4:13-17

> Behold, I tell you a mystery. We will not all sleep, but we will all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound and the dead will be raised incorruptible, and we will be changed.
> 1 CORINTHIANS 15:51-52

In a moment, at the last trumpet

In a moment is ἐν ἀτόμῳ, en atomō. Atomos means something too small to be cut, and it is where we get the word atom. The change happens in an instant that cannot be divided. The twinkling of an eye is ἐν ῥιπῇ ὀφθαλμοῦ, rhipē ophthalmou, the flick of an eye. And we will be changed is ἀλλαγησόμεθα, allagēsometha, to be made other, transformed.

Line these passages up and they say the same thing: a trumpet, the dead raised first, the living changed, everyone gathered to him. This is the event many call the Rapture. Scripture calls it the resurrection, and Matthew places it immediately after the suffering of those days. Revelation 20:5-6 names it the first resurrection, and the ones who share in it reign with Messiah a thousand years, and Revelation 5:10 says that reign is on the earth (see Heaven Comes to Earth, Section VI).

> Don't marvel at this, for the hour comes in which all who are in the tombs will hear his voice, and will come out; those who have done good, to the resurrection of life; and those who have done evil, to the resurrection of judgment.
> JOHN 5:28-29

There are two resurrections: one to life and one to judgment (also Acts 24:15; Daniel 12:2). Revelation 20:5 says the rest of the dead didn't live until the thousand years were finished. This study is about the first one, the resurrection of life.

SECTION V

Yahshua Is the Pattern

> Beloved, now we are children of Elohim. It is not yet revealed what we will be; but we know that when he is revealed, we will be like him; for we will see him just as he is. Everyone who has this hope set on him purifies himself, even as he is pure.
> 1 JOHN 3:2-3

> For our citizenship is in heaven, from where we also wait for a Savior, Adonai Yahshua Messiah, who will change the body of our humiliation to be conformed to the body of his glory, according to the working by which he is able even to subject all things to himself.
> PHILIPPIANS 3:20-21

Two Greek words in Philippians 3:21 carry the whole teaching. Change is μετασχηματίσει, metaschēmatisei, to change the outward form. Conformed is σύμμορφον, summorphon, sharing the same form. Our body of humiliation will be refashioned into the same form as the body of his glory.

Paul says the same in Romans 8:29, that we are predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, and in 1 Corinthians 15:49, as we have borne the image of those made of dust, let's also bear the image of the heavenly. So if we want to know what our glorified bodies will be like, the answer is simple. Look at his.

SECTION VI

What His Risen Body Shows Us

For forty days after he rose, Yahshua showed himself alive after he suffered, by many proofs (Acts 1:3). Every one of those proofs tells us something about the body he will give us.

1. It is real. You can touch it.

Luke 24:36-39

> But they were terrified and filled with fear, and supposed that they had seen a spirit. He said to them, "Why are you troubled? Why do doubts arise in your hearts? See my hands and my feet, that it is truly me. Touch me and see, for a spirit doesn't have flesh and bones, as you see that I have."
> LUKE 24:37-39

The disciples thought they were seeing a spirit. Yahshua corrected them on the spot. Flesh and bones, σάρκα καὶ ὀστέα. Touch me. The resurrection body is not a ghost and not a vapor. It is a body.

For us: Your hope is not to become a spirit. It is to be raised whole.

2. It eats.

Luke 24:41-43; John 21:12-13; Acts 10:41

> While they still didn't believe for joy, and wondered, he said to them, "Do you have anything here to eat?" They gave him a piece of a broiled fish and some honeycomb. He took them, and ate in front of them.
> LUKE 24:41-43

He asked for food and ate it in front of them, not because he was hungry, but to prove he was real. Later he cooked breakfast on the beach, and Peter said they ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. At the last supper he said he would drink the fruit of the vine anew with you in my Father's Kingdom (Matthew 26:29). There is a table waiting, the marriage supper of the Lamb (Revelation 19:9).

For us: Fellowship around a table is not a thing of this age only. It goes with us.

3. It is the same person.

Luke 24:39; John 20:16; John 21:7

Yahshua said, it is truly me. Literally, ἐγώ εἰμι αὐτός, I am he myself.

Mary did not know him until he said her name, Mary, and she knew his voice at once. John looked across the water and said, It's Adonai! The one who rose is the same one who was buried. Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob are still Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob at the table in the Kingdom (Matthew 8:11).

For us: You will still be you, and you will know the people you love.

4. It is recognized when he chooses.

Luke 24:15-16, 30-31; John 20:14; John 21:4

> When he had sat down at the table with them, he took the bread and gave thanks. Breaking it, he gave it to them. Their eyes were opened and they recognized him, then he vanished out of their sight.
> LUKE 24:30-31

On the road to Emmaus their eyes were kept from recognizing him, and then at the breaking of bread their eyes were opened. The glorified body is not less than ours. It has capacities ours does not.

For us: We are not losing anything in the resurrection. We are gaining.

5. It keeps the scars, glorified.

John 20:20, 27; Revelation 5:6

> After eight days again his disciples were inside and Thomas was with them. Yahshua came, the doors being locked, and stood in the middle, and said, "Peace be to you." Then he said to Thomas, "Reach here your finger, and see my hands. Reach here your hand, and put it into my side. Don't be unbelieving, but believing."
> JOHN 20:26-27

He could have risen without a mark. He chose to keep the nail prints and the wound in his side, and he invited Thomas to touch them. John later saw him in glory as a Lamb standing, as though it had been slain (Revelation 5:6). The wounds became his testimony.

For us: In the resurrection, your wounds do not define you. They declare what he did.

6. Locked doors do not stop it.

John 20:19, 26

> When therefore it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and when the doors were locked where the disciples were assembled, for fear of the Jews, Yahshua came and stood in the middle, and said to them, "Peace be to you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples therefore were glad when they saw Adonai.
> JOHN 20:19-20

The doors were locked. He came and stood in the middle. The resurrection body is real flesh, and it is not limited the way our bodies are now.

For us: What holds you in now will not hold you then.

7. It breathes the Spirit.

John 20:22; Genesis 2:7

> When he had said this, he breathed on them, and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit!
> JOHN 20:22

He breathed on them is ἐνεφύσησεν, enephusēsen. That rare verb is the exact word the Septuagint uses in Genesis 2:7, when YHWH Elohim breathed into Adam's nostrils the breath of life. The risen Yahshua stands in the room as the last Adam, breathing new life into a new creation.

For us: The first Adam received breath. The last Adam gives it (1 Corinthians 15:45).

8. Gravity does not hold it.

Acts 1:9-11

> When he had said these things, as they were looking, he was taken up, and a cloud received him out of their sight.
> ACTS 1:9

He went up in the same body in which he ate fish, and the angels said he will come back in the same way. Paul says we will be caught up to meet him in the air (1 Thessalonians 4:17).

For us: A body made for a new heavens and a new earth.

9. It works, walks, and restores.

Luke 24:13-15; John 21:9-17

> So when they got out on the land, they saw a fire of coals there, with fish and bread laid on it.
> JOHN 21:9

He walked the road to Emmaus, taught Scripture the whole way, built a fire of coals, and cooked. That word fire of coals, ἀνθρακιά, anthrakia, appears only twice in the New Testament: here, and at the fire where Peter denied him three times (John 18:18). Over a second fire of coals, Yahshua restored Peter three times.

For us: The resurrection body is not idle. And the risen Messiah still does deliverance.

SECTION VII

The Mountain Preview

> After six days, Yahshua took with him Peter, James, and John his brother, and brought them up into a high mountain by themselves. He was changed before them. His face shone like the sun, and his garments became as white as the light. Behold, Moses and Elijah appeared to them talking with him.
> MATTHEW 17:1-3

He was changed is μετεμορφώθη, metemorphōthē, he was transfigured. For a moment on the mountain, Peter, James, and John saw the glory that was in him break through: a face like the sun, garments white as light. This matches what Daniel promised, that the wise will shine as the brightness of the expanse (Daniel 12:3), and what Yahshua said: Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the Kingdom of their Father (Matthew 13:43). John saw it again in Revelation 1:16: His face was like the sun shining at its brightest.

Yahshua himself called what they saw on the mountain a ὅραμα, horama, a vision: Don't tell anyone what you saw (Matthew 17:9). It was a preview of the Kingdom, given before the resurrection, not proof that the dead were already in glory.

> THE SAME WORD AS ROMANS 12:2
> Be transformed by the renewing of your mind (Romans 12:2) uses the same verb, μεταμορφοῦσθε, metamorphousthe. Paul uses it again in 2 Corinthians 3:18: we are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory.
> The transfiguration that will happen to our bodies in a moment is already happening to our minds day by day. The resurrection does not start at the trumpet. It starts at the renewing of your mind.

SECTION VIII

The Seed and the Plant

> But someone will say, "How are the dead raised?" and, "With what kind of body do they come?" You foolish one, that which you yourself sow is not made alive unless it dies. That which you sow, you don't sow the body that will be, but a bare grain, maybe of wheat, or of some other kind. But Elohim gives it a body even as it pleased him, and to each seed a body of its own.
> 1 CORINTHIANS 15:35-38

Paul answers the question everyone asks with a farmer's picture. A seed goes into the ground and dies. What comes up is not a different plant. It is its own body, a body of its own kind. But it is far more glorious than the bare grain that went in. Same life, new form.

> So also is the resurrection of the dead. The body is sown perishable; it is raised imperishable. It is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness; it is raised in power. It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body and there is also a spiritual body.
> 1 CORINTHIANS 15:42-44

SOWN (THIS BODY) / RAISED (THE GLORIFIED BODY)

Sown (This Body): Perishable, φθορά, phthora, decay
Raised (The Glorified Body): Imperishable, ἀφθαρσία, aphtharsia, cannot decay

Sown (This Body): Dishonor, ἀτιμία, atimia
Raised (The Glorified Body): Glory, δόξα, doxa

Sown (This Body): Weakness, ἀσθένεια, astheneia
Raised (The Glorified Body): Power, δύναμις, dunamis

Sown (This Body): A natural body, σῶμα ψυχικόν, sōma psuchikon
Raised (The Glorified Body): A spiritual body, σῶμα πνευματικόν, sōma pneumatikon

A spiritual body is still a body

Some read spiritual body as a body made out of spirit, with nothing solid to it. But look at how Paul uses the word. In 1 Corinthians 2:15 he calls a living, breathing believer pneumatikos, spiritual, and he obviously does not mean the man is invisible. Pneumatikos describes what something is ruled by and animated by, not what it is made of. The natural body is run by the life of the soul. The spiritual body is run by the Spirit of Elohim. And Paul still calls it σῶμα, sōma, a body. Yahshua's flesh and bones settle the question.

> So also it is written, "The first man, Adam, became a living soul." The last Adam became a life-giving spirit. However that which is spiritual isn't first, but that which is natural, then that which is spiritual. The first man is of the earth, made of dust. The second man is Adonai from heaven. As is the one made of dust, such are those who are also made of dust; and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly. As we have borne the image of those made of dust, let's also bear the image of the heavenly.
> 1 CORINTHIANS 15:45-49

Putting on immortality

> For this perishable body must become imperishable, and this mortal must put on immortality. But when this perishable body will have become imperishable, and this mortal will have put on immortality, then what is written will happen: "Death is swallowed up in victory." "Death, where is your sting? Hades, where is your victory?"
> 1 CORINTHIANS 15:53-55

Immortality is ἀθανασία, athanasia, deathlessness. Notice we put it on, like a garment. You put on what you do not already have. That is why 1 Timothy 6:16 says that he alone has immortality. It is his to give, and he gives it at the resurrection. Paul says the same in 2 Corinthians 5:4: we do not long to be unclothed, but to be clothed, that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life.

SECTION IX

What Ends, and What Remains

What ends

- Death. They can't die any more (Luke 20:36). Death will be no more (Revelation 21:4). He has swallowed up death forever (Isaiah 25:8).
- Tears, mourning, crying, and pain. He wipes every tear himself (Revelation 21:4).
- Decay, weakness, and dishonor. Raised imperishable, in glory, in power (1 Corinthians 15:42-43). The groaning of Romans 8:23 ends in the redemption of our body.
- The curse. There will be no curse any more (Revelation 22:3).

What about marriage?

> But those who are considered worthy to attain to that age and the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage. For they can't die any more, for they are like the angels, and are children of Elohim, being children of the resurrection.
> LUKE 20:35-36

This one needs care, because we teach so much on marriage. Read Luke's version closely: they neither marry nor are given in marriage, for they can't die any more, for they are like the angels. Yahshua explains the likeness himself: it is about not dying, not about becoming angels. Believers do not turn into angels. They are children of the resurrection.

And this is not a loss. Paul told us marriage was always a picture: This mystery is great, but I speak concerning Messiah and of the assembly (Ephesians 5:32). In the resurrection the picture gives way to the reality it was pointing at, the marriage of the Lamb (Revelation 19:7-9). Every husband who loved like Yahshua and every wife who yielded like Yahshua was rehearsing for that wedding. See Husbands, Love Your Wives and Wives, Submit to Your Husbands.

What remains, and what is gained

- A real body, flesh and bones, that can be touched (Luke 24:39).
- Your identity and your name. Known and knowing (John 20:16; Matthew 8:11).
- The table. Eating and drinking in the Kingdom (Matthew 26:29; Revelation 19:9).
- Glory and light. Shining like the sun (Daniel 12:3; Matthew 13:43).
- His face. They will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads (Revelation 22:4). David's hope in Psalm 17:15 is fulfilled.
- Work and reign. Priests of Elohim and of Messiah, reigning with him (Revelation 20:6; 5:10; 22:5).
- A home. The New Jerusalem on a renewed earth (see Heaven Comes to Earth).

SECTION X

Living Now as Resurrection People

> But if the Spirit of him who raised up Yahshua from the dead dwells in you, he who raised up Messiah Yahshua from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit who dwells in you.
> ROMANS 8:11

The same Spirit who raised Yahshua lives in every believer right now. The resurrection is a future event, but its power is already at work in us. Paul says we were buried with him that just as Messiah was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, so we also might walk in newness of life (Romans 6:4).

- We grieve with hope. Paul wrote 1 Thessalonians 4 so that you don't grieve like the rest, who have no hope. The comfort he gives is the resurrection. Those we love are asleep, and they will wake.
- We purify ourselves. Everyone who has this hope set on him purifies himself, even as he is pure (1 John 3:3).
- We let our wounds become testimony. Yahshua kept his scars and turned them into proof of his love. Forgiveness does not erase what happened. It transforms what it means. Humility is the root of forgiveness, and forgiveness is the root of deliverance.
- We do not quit. Be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in Adonai's work, because you know that your labor is not in vain in Adonai (1 Corinthians 15:58). That is how Paul ends the resurrection chapter. Nothing done for him is wasted.
- We renew our minds. Romans 12:2 is the resurrection beginning on the inside.

SECTION XI

Walking It Out This Week

Practical, testable, and small enough to actually do. Seven days.

1. Read the forty days. Read Luke 24, John 20, and John 21 in one sitting. List every physical thing the risen Yahshua did.
2. Speak the hope over your grief. Name someone you have lost who died in Messiah, and read 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18 aloud with their name in mind.
3. Look at your scars. Ask YHWH to show you one wound he wants to turn into testimony, and tell one person what he did.
4. Forgive at a fire of coals. Like Peter on the beach, let Yahshua restore you where you failed. Then forgive someone where they failed you.
5. Renew your mind. Pray Romans 12:2 each morning. Ask what he wants to transform in your thinking today.
6. Purify yourself. Lay down one thing that does not match the hope you are carrying (1 John 3:3).

7 Eat with someone. Share a meal with a brother or sister and talk about the table waiting in the Kingdom (Matthew 26:29).
