Wives, Submit to Your Husbands

As the Bride Answers Her Bridegroom

A Midrash Study on Ephesians 5:21-33, 1 Peter 2:21 to 3:7, and the Submission of Yahshua

Scripture quoted from the World English Bible, divine name rendered YHWH, Elohim, and Adonai, with the Son's name rendered Yahshua and Messiah. Companion study to Husbands, Love Your Wives.

THE HEART OF IT

Most people hear the word submit and picture a man giving orders and a woman taking them. That picture did not come from Scripture.

In Scripture, submission is not first a word about wives at all. It is a word about Yahshua. The same Greek word Paul uses for the wife is used for Yahshua as a boy in Nazareth, and for the Son at the very end of the age. Before submission was ever asked of a wife, it was lived out by the Son of Elohim.

So this study does not start with what a wife owes a man. It starts with the One she is following, and what he showed us submission really is.

SECTION I

The Text

> Subjecting yourselves to one another in the fear of Messiah. Wives, be subject to your own husbands, as to Yahshua. For the husband is the head of the wife, as Messiah also is the head of the assembly, being himself the savior of the body. But as the assembly is subject to Messiah, so let the wives also be to their own husbands in everything.
>
> Husbands, love your wives, even as Messiah also loved the assembly, and gave himself up for it...
>
> Nevertheless each of you must also love his own wife even as himself; and let the wife see that she respects her husband.
> EPHESIANS 5:21-25, 33

> In the same way, wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; so that, even if any don't obey the Word, they may be won by the behavior of their wives without a word; seeing your pure behavior in fear.
> 1 PETER 3:1-2

> Wives, be in subjection to your husbands, as is fitting in Adonai. Husbands, love your wives, and don't be bitter against them.
> COLOSSIANS 3:18-19

Three apostles' letters, the same instruction, and every time it is paired with a command to the husband right beside it. Scripture never hands one spouse a duty and leaves the other one free. The wife's word and the husband's word are two halves of one picture.

SECTION II

The Word Itself

Hupotassō: arranged under

The Greek word is ὑποτάσσω, hupotassō (Strong's G5293). It is built from two pieces: hupo, under, and tassō, to arrange or put in order. It is an order word. It describes taking your place in an arrangement. It is not a worth word. Nothing in the word says the one arranged under is lesser.

Pay close attention to the voice. In Ephesians 5:21 the form is ὑποτασσόμενοι, hupotassomenoi, a present participle in the middle voice. Thayer's lexicon gives the middle sense as to subject oneself. Middle voice means the subject does the action to herself, for herself. Present means it keeps going. In plain words: submission is something a wife chooses and gives. It is never something a husband takes.

> READ THIS TWICE
>
> There is no verse anywhere in Scripture that tells a husband to make his wife submit. Not one. Every submission command to the wife is spoken to the wife. Every command to the husband is about how he loves.
>
> A man who demands submission is quoting a verse that was not addressed to him.

The verb Paul did not write

Here is something most English readers never see. In the earliest Greek manuscripts and in the major critical Greek editions, Ephesians 5:22 has no verb at all. It reads, literally: the wives, to their own husbands, as to Yahshua. Translators add be subject because the verse borrows its verb from verse 21. Thayer's lexicon notes this on the word itself: the Griesbach, Tischendorf, and Westcott-Hort texts omit the verb in 5:22.

That means grammatically, the wife's submission in verse 22 is one branch growing out of verse 21: subjecting yourselves to one another in the fear of Messiah. Her yielding is a specific way of living out the humility that every believer in the house is already called to. It does not stand alone, and it was never meant to be lifted out and swung like a hammer.

Idiois: her own

Paul says to your own husbands, ἰδίοις, idiois. Scripture does not tell women to submit to men in general. It speaks of a wife and her own husband, inside a covenant. A woman is not under every man in the room, at the job, or in the congregation because she is a woman.

SECTION III

Yahshua Shows Us What Submission Looks Like

If you want to know what a word means, watch the one who lived it perfectly. Peter makes this connection on purpose. He spends the end of 1 Peter 2 describing how Yahshua suffered, then opens chapter 3 with one Greek word: in the same way, ὁμοίως, homoiōs. The wife's submission is patterned after the Messiah's.

1. He submitted to people who knew less than he did.

> And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth. He was subject to them, and his mother kept all these sayings in her heart.
> LUKE 2:51

The Greek is ἦν ὑποτασσόμενος, ēn hupotassomenos, the same word Paul uses for the wife, in the same middle voice, as an ongoing state. Look at the timing. One verse earlier the twelve year old Yahshua had just told Joseph and Mary that he must be in his Father's house, and they did not understand him. He knew more than they did. He was right and they were confused. And then he went home and lived subject to them.

Submission was never about who is smarter, more spiritual, or more right. The Son of Elohim submitted to two imperfect parents in a carpenter's house. That alone destroys the lie that submission means inferiority.

2. He did not grasp at what was already his.

> Have this in your mind, which was also in Messiah Yahshua, who, existing in the form of Elohim, didn't consider equality with Elohim a thing to be grasped, but emptied himself, taking the form of a servant, being made in the likeness of men. And being found in human form, he humbled himself, becoming obedient to death, yes, the death of the cross.
> PHILIPPIANS 2:5-8

He was equal, and he still yielded. Paul says have this in your mind, which means this is for every believer, man and woman. Equal worth and a yielded will are not opposites. In Yahshua they live in the same Person.

3. He chose the Father's will over his own.

> For I have come down from heaven, not to do my own will, but the will of him who sent me.
> JOHN 6:38

> Father, if you are willing, remove this cup from me. Nevertheless, not my will, but yours, be done.
> LUKE 22:42

Notice what he did in the garden. He was honest. He said what he wanted. He asked for the cup to pass. Submission did not make him silent or fake. He brought his real desire to the Father and then laid it down. A submitted wife is not a woman with no opinion. She is a woman who speaks honestly and then trusts.

4. He learned obedience in suffering, and he was heard.

> He, in the days of his flesh, having offered up prayers and petitions with strong crying and tears to him who was able to save him from death, and having been heard for his godly fear, though he was a Son, yet learned obedience by the things which he suffered.
> HEBREWS 5:7-8

Godly fear is εὐλάβεια, eulabeia (G2124), reverent awe. It is the same family of thought as Ephesians 5:21, in the fear of Messiah. His yielding was offered to the Father, and the Father heard him. Submission is not a prayer that goes nowhere. It is the posture YHWH answers.

5. He handed himself over to the righteous Judge.

> For to this you were called, because Messiah also suffered for us, leaving you an example, that you should follow his steps... Who, when he was cursed, didn't curse back. When he suffered, didn't threaten, but committed himself to him who judges righteously.
> 1 PETER 2:21-23

Committed himself is παρεδίδου, paredidou, an imperfect tense: he kept on handing himself over. Here is the secret Peter is about to give wives. Yahshua's trust was not in the men treating him unjustly. It was in the Father who judges righteously. A wife's submission does not rest on her husband being perfect. It rests on her trust in YHWH, who sees everything and judges rightly.

6. He will still be submitted at the end of the age.

> When all things have been subjected to him, then the Son will also himself be subjected to him who subjected all things to him, that Elohim may be all in all.
> 1 CORINTHIANS 15:28

The word is ὑποταγήσεται, hupotagēsetai, future tense, the same root. When everything is restored, when there is no more curse, the Son will still be yielded to the Father. That settles it. Submission is not part of the curse. It belongs to the restored Kingdom. It is holy enough to be found in the Son forever.

> SAY IT PLAINLY
>
> If submission were beneath anyone's dignity, Yahshua could not have done it. He did it as a boy, in his ministry, in the garden, on the stake, and he will do it in the age to come.
>
> When a wife yields, she is not stepping down. She is stepping into the likeness of her Messiah.

SECTION IV

Back to the Garden: The Helper and the Curse

Ezer kenegdo: a strength that corresponds to him

> YHWH Elohim said, "It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make him a helper comparable to him."
> GENESIS 2:18

The Hebrew is עזר כנגדו, ezer kenegdo. The word ezer (H5828) appears twenty one times in the Hebrew Scriptures, and most of the time it describes YHWH himself.

Exodus 18:4 The Elohim of my father was my help, and delivered me from the sword of Pharaoh.

Deuteronomy 33:29 YHWH, the shield of your help.

Psalm 33:20 He is our help and our shield.

Psalm 70:5 You are my help and my deliverer.

Psalm 115:9-11 He is their help and their shield, said three times.

Psalm 121:1-2 Where does my help come from? My help comes from YHWH, who made heaven and earth.

Hosea 13:9 Israel destroyed itself by turning against its help.

An ezer is not an assistant or a servant. It is strength brought into a place of real need, the kind of help that rescues. And kenegdo means corresponding to him, standing opposite him, face to face. She is not above him and not beneath him. She matches him.

> THE SEPTUAGINT ADDS LIGHT
>
> The Greek Septuagint renders Genesis 2:18 as βοηθὸς κατ᾽ αὐτόν, boēthos kat' auton, a helper corresponding to him. Boēthos is the same word the Septuagint uses when it calls YHWH our helper in the Psalms, and it is the word the writer of Hebrews uses when he quotes it: Adonai is my helper; I will not fear (Hebrews 13:6).
>
> In both the Hebrew and the Greek, the woman is described with a word that belongs first to Elohim. Her role was designed as strength, not weakness.

Genesis 3:16: what sin broke

> To the woman he said, "I will greatly multiply your pain in childbirth. In pain you will bear children. Your desire will be for your husband, and he will rule over you."
> GENESIS 3:16

Desire is תשוקה, teshuqah (H8669), a word that appears only three times: here, in Genesis 4:7, and in Song of Solomon 7:10. In Genesis 4:7 YHWH tells Cain that sin's desire is for him, and he must rule over it. The same two words, desire and rule, sit side by side in both verses, which is why many readers see Genesis 3:16 as describing a struggle that entered the marriage through sin.

The Septuagint translates teshuqah here with ἀποστροφή, apostrophē, a turning or a turning back. Brenton's English Septuagint renders the line, thy submission shall be to thy husband. Either way, Genesis 3:16 describes what happened after the fall. It is not presented as the Eden design of Genesis 2.

Then look at the third use. In Song of Solomon 7:10 the bride says, I am my beloved's, and his desire is toward me. Now the desire runs from him toward her, and there is no ruling over at all. What the curse twisted, covenant love restores. That is the direction Yahshua takes a marriage: not back to domination, but forward to the design.

SECTION V

Head, Body, and the Order of Love

Paul calls the husband the head, κεφαλή, kephalē (G2776), and he defines it in the same breath: as Messiah also is the head of the assembly, being himself the savior of the body. The head goes first into danger. The head gives himself up. Everything we taught in Husbands, Love Your Wives lives inside that word.

Then Paul says: as the assembly is subject to Messiah, so let the wives also be to their own husbands (verse 24). So ask the question. How does the assembly submit to Messiah? Not because he forced her. Not because he shouted louder. She yields because he loved her first and gave himself for her.

> We love him, because he first loved us.
> 1 JOHN 4:19

That is the order of the Kingdom. Love goes first. Yielding answers. The bride's submission is a response, not a transaction. And notice what Paul does not say: he does not say wives submit if husbands love, or husbands love if wives submit. Each one answers to Messiah for his or her own part.

In everything, as is fitting in Adonai

Verse 24 says in everything. Some have used those two words to demand total obedience. But Paul framed the whole command two verses earlier: as to Yahshua. And in Colossians 3:18 he says it again: as is fitting in Adonai, ὡς ἀνῆκεν ἐν κυρίῳ, hōs anēken en kuriō. Everything that is fitting in him. Nothing that is not. Submission that leads her away from Yahshua is not the submission Paul is describing.

SECTION VI

Respect: The Wife's Word in Verse 33

> Nevertheless each of you must also love his own wife even as himself; and let the wife see that she respects her husband.
> EPHESIANS 5:33

Respects is φοβῆται, phobētai, from phobeō, to fear or revere. It comes from the same root as phobos in verse 21, in the fear of Messiah. Paul begins and ends the passage with the same idea. Reverence for Messiah opens it. A wife's honor for her husband closes it.

This is not terror. Peter will say in a moment that the wife is not put in fear by any terror. It is honor: the way she speaks of him, to him, and about him when he is not in the room. A man is built to be strengthened by respect the way a woman is built to be strengthened by being cherished. Each one is commanded to give the other the thing that strengthens them.

SECTION VII

1 Peter 3: The Quiet Strength That Wins

> In the same way, wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; so that, even if any don't obey the Word, they may be won by the behavior of their wives without a word; seeing your pure behavior in fear. Let your beauty be not just the outward adorning of braiding the hair, and of wearing jewels of gold, or of putting on fine clothing; but in the hidden person of the heart, in the incorruptible adornment of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of Elohim very precious.
> 1 PETER 3:1-4

Won without a word

Peter is speaking to women married to men who do not obey the Word. He does not tell them to preach at their husbands, nag them, or shame them. He says they may be won without a word, ἄνευ λόγου, aneu logou, by their behavior. A life speaks louder than a lecture. This is the same thing Yahshua did before his accusers: he did not threaten, he trusted the Father, and his silence was louder than their noise.

Gentle and quiet: the words of Yahshua

Gentle is πραΰς, praus (G4239). It is the exact word Yahshua uses for himself: Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart (Matthew 11:29). Quiet is ἡσύχιος, hēsuchios (G2272), settled, at rest, not anxious. Praus is strength under control. It is the posture of a war horse that could run wild and chooses to answer the rein. The spirit Peter asks of wives is the very spirit of the Messiah.

Sarah, and what Peter actually points to

> For this is how the holy women before, who hoped in Elohim also adorned themselves, being in subjection to their own husbands: as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him lord, whose children you now are, if you do well, and are not put in fear by any terror.
> 1 PETER 3:5-6

- They hoped in Elohim. The holy women's submission rested on their hope in YHWH, not their husbands. Same as Yahshua in 2:23.
- Calling him lord. Peter points to Genesis 18:12, where Sarah, laughing within herself, calls Abraham אדני, adoni, my lord. The Septuagint reads ὁ δὲ κύριός μου, ho de kurios mou, and Peter uses that same word, kurion. Notice where she said it: inside herself. Peter is pointing to the posture of her heart when no one was watching, not a performance.
- Not put in fear by any terror. The word is πτόησις, ptoēsis, terror or alarm. Biblical submission and fear of your husband cannot live in the same house. If a woman is afraid, something other than submission is happening.
- And remember the other side of Sarah's story. In Genesis 21:12 YHWH told Abraham, in all that Sarah says to you, listen to her voice. The woman Peter holds up as the model of submission had a husband who was commanded by YHWH to listen to her.

Then verse 7 opens with the same words, in the same way, and turns to the husbands: live with her according to knowledge, honor her, she is a joint heir of the grace of life, that your prayers may not be hindered. Messiah's example sets the pattern for both of them.

SECTION VIII

Submission Is Strength: The Woman of Valor

> Who can find a worthy woman? For her price is far above rubies. The heart of her husband trusts in her. He shall have no lack of gain. She does him good, and not harm, all the days of her life.
> PROVERBS 31:10-12

Worthy woman is אשת חיל, eshet chayil. Chayil (H2428) is a strong word. It is used for valor, might, wealth, and even an army. Boaz uses the same phrase for Ruth (Ruth 3:11). The woman of Proverbs 31 buys a field, runs a business, works with her hands, opens her arms to the poor, speaks with wisdom, and her husband trusts in her heart (batach, H982).

Scripture's picture of a submitted wife is not a woman who disappears. It is a woman of valor whose strength is joined to her husband's house instead of competing with it. She does him good and not harm. That is the whole point of an ezer.

> ...that they may train the young wives to love their husbands, to love their children, to be sober minded, chaste, workers at home, kind, being in subjection to their own husbands, that Elohim's word may not be blasphemed.
> TITUS 2:4-5

Paul gives the reason: that Elohim's word may not be blasphemed. A home that lives this out becomes a testimony. The world is watching how covenant people treat each other.

SECTION IX

It Runs Both Ways

Scripture never builds a one way marriage. Look at how often the same command goes in both directions.

> Let the husband give his wife the affection owed her, and likewise also the wife her husband. The wife doesn't have authority over her own body, but the husband. Likewise also the husband doesn't have authority over his own body, but the wife.
> 1 CORINTHIANS 7:3-4

- Ephesians 5:21. Subjecting yourselves to one another. The header over the whole passage.
- 1 Corinthians 7:4. Authority over the body runs both ways, word for word.
- 1 Peter 3:1 and 3:7. In the same way, wives. In the same way, husbands.
- Colossians 3:18-19. Wives be subject; husbands love and do not be bitter.
- Ephesians 5:22-33. The wife receives roughly three verses. The husband receives roughly nine. The heavier instruction is on the man.

SECTION X

Where Submission Stops

Truth in love means saying this part plainly. Submission as to Yahshua can never be turned into submission against Yahshua.

> But Peter and the apostles answered, "We must obey Elohim rather than men."
> ACTS 5:29

Sapphira: you cannot hide behind your husband

Just before Acts 5:29, Ananias and Sapphira sold land and lied about the price, his wife also being aware of it (Acts 5:2). Three hours later Peter questioned Sapphira by herself and gave her the chance to tell the truth. She repeated the lie, and she was judged for her own choice (Acts 5:7-10). Going along with a husband's sin is not submission. Each person answers to Elohim for themselves.

Abigail: wisdom that saves a household

Nabal's foolishness was about to bring death on his whole house. Abigail acted quickly and wisely, went to David, and turned away bloodshed. David blessed YHWH for sending her and blessed her discretion (1 Samuel 25:32-33). A wife who protects her household from her husband's folly is not rebelling against the order of YHWH.

> PLAINLY, FOR ANYONE WHO NEEDS TO HEAR IT
>
> Submission never requires a woman to accept abuse. Nothing in Scripture tells a wife to stay in danger, to hide violence, or to let her children be harmed. Peter said she is not to be put in fear by any terror. A man who is harming his wife has already broken the covenant he is pointing to.
>
> If you are in danger, getting yourself and your children to safety is not rebellion. Reach out to someone you trust, and in the United States the National Domestic Violence Hotline is 1-800-799-7233.

- Submission is not silence. Yahshua told the Father what he wanted in the garden.
- Submission is not agreeing that wrong is right.
- Submission is not joining a husband in sin.
- Submission is not owed to men in general, only to her own husband in covenant.
- Submission is not proof that she is worth less. The Son submits, and he is YHWH.

SECTION XI

Pride, Humility, and Deliverance

Here is where it connects to everything we teach at Kingdom Life. Submission is not first a marriage issue. It is a humility issue, and humility always begins with Elohim.

> But he gives more grace. Therefore it says, "Elohim resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble." Be subject therefore to Elohim. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.
> JAMES 4:6-7

Be subject in James 4:7 is ὑποτάγητε, hupotagēte, the same word again. And look at the order. Humble yourself before Elohim, then resist the devil, and he flees. Submission to YHWH comes before victory over the enemy.

Pride will dress itself up in a hundred costumes inside a marriage. It says: he has not earned it. It says: I would respect him if he changed first. It says: I have forgiven him, I just will not let him lead. Pride keeps a list, and that list becomes an open door. Unforgiveness toward a husband will quietly poison a wife's spirit the same way unforgiveness toward a wife poisons a husband's.

THE ORDER OF THINGS

Humility is the root of forgiveness. Forgiveness is the root of deliverance.

A wife who forgives her husband specifically, out loud before YHWH, and lays down the list is not giving him a free pass. She is getting free. And very often, the freedom in her opens the door for YHWH to deal with him.

> Be kind to one another, tender hearted, forgiving each other, just as Elohim also in Messiah forgave you.
> EPHESIANS 4:32

SECTION XII

The Picture They Make Together

Paul ends Ephesians 5 by saying, this mystery is great, but I speak concerning Messiah and of the assembly (verse 32). A husband who gives himself up and a wife who freely yields are not acting out a power arrangement. They are preaching a sermon with their lives.

The husband shows Messiah going first, laying down his life, washing, cherishing, presenting his bride without spot.

The wife shows The bride answering that love freely, trusting her Bridegroom, and making herself ready (Revelation 19:7).

Together they show Bone of bone and flesh of flesh, one flesh, the covenant of YHWH with his people walking around on the earth.

Break either half and the picture breaks. A husband who rules like Babylon lies about Messiah. A wife who fights for control lies about the bride. But a husband who loves like Yahshua and a wife who yields like Yahshua tell the truth about the Kingdom.

SECTION XIII

Walking It Out This Week

Practical, testable, and small enough to actually do. Seven days.

1. Submit to YHWH first. Start each morning by yielding your own will to him out loud. James 4:7 before Ephesians 5:22.
2. Speak honestly, then trust. Tell your husband what you really think on one thing, the way Yahshua spoke in the garden, then lay it down before YHWH.
3. Honor him where he cannot hear it. Speak well of him to someone else this week, with no complaint attached.
4. Win without a word. Pick one thing you usually correct him about and let your behavior speak instead.
5. Forgive one specific thing. Name it before YHWH, release it, and take it off the list for good.
6. Pray for him by name. Pray over his calling and his weak places, not about his failures.
7. Thank him for leading somewhere. Find one place he went first and tell him you saw it.

For couples: read Section XII of this handout and the Five Verbs section of Husbands, Love Your Wives together. Each of you name one thing you will do this week, and only your own.
