

Breaking the Generational Curse Line

Six steps to freedom from an attack that started before you were born

Some people fight the same battle their entire life and never understand where it came from. The same torment. The same rage. The same fear that shows up with no cause. The same sin pattern they swore they would never repeat, showing up in them anyway. They repent, they pray, they fast, and it still will not lift. Very often the reason is simple: they are not the one who opened the door. Somebody upstream in the bloodline opened it, and what came through that door did not stop at one generation.

This teaching lays out six steps, in order, for shutting that door and driving out what came through it. The order is not a suggestion. Each step removes a claim the enemy has been standing on. If you skip to the end and start commanding spirits to leave while their ground is still intact, they will not go, and you will walk away thinking deliverance does not work.

Why a bloodline can carry an attack

...visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children, and on the children's children, on the third and on the fourth generation.

EXODUS 34:7 (WEB, DIVINE NAME RENDERED YHWH, ELOHIM, AND ADONAI)

That verse troubles a lot of people, because Scripture is also plain that a child is not guilty of a parent's sin:

The soul who sins, he shall die. The son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son.

EZEKIEL 18:20

Both are true, and they are not in conflict. Guilt is not inherited. Consequence is. YHWH is not punishing you for what your father did. What happened is that your father's sin opened a legal door in the family line, and the spirits that walked through that door kept working the bloodline after him. You did not sign the agreement. You were just born inside the house where it was signed. That is why you can be fully forgiven and still be under attack, and it is why repentance alone sometimes does not end it. The sin is forgiven. The door is still standing open.

The good news is that a door can be shut and a claim can be revoked, and Yahshua has already purchased every bit of the authority you need to do it.

Before you begin

READ THIS FIRST

Forgiveness is not the same thing as access. Forgiving a parent does not mean moving back in, restoring contact, handing them your children, or staying quiet about what happened. You can fully release someone before YHWH and still keep a locked door between you and them. Those are two different decisions.

Safety comes before ministry. If someone is being harmed right now, especially a child, the first step is not a prayer. The first step is getting them out of harm's way and to the people whose job it is to protect them. Deliverance ministry does not replace protection, and it never covers for an abuser.

Do not send a wounded person in alone. Sit with them. Let mature believers stand with them. Give them time, and do not rush someone into words they are not ready to mean.

This is a prayer of the will, not of the feelings. Nobody feels forgiving toward a person who wrecked their childhood. YHWH is not asking for the feeling. He is asking for the decision. He will handle the healing of the feelings afterward, and He will take His time doing it well.

The six steps, in order

1. Come into full surrender with YHWH.
2. Confess the sins of the sinning parent before the Father.
3. Be willing to fully forgive the sinning parent.
4. Break every ungodly soul tie with that parent.
5. Break the curse line the spirits have been feeding on.
6. Verbally command the spirits to leave, in the name of Yahshua.

Step 1 • The Full Surrender

Be subject therefore to Elohim. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

JAMES 4:7

Look at the order in that one verse, because the whole teaching sits on it. Submit first. Resist second. Then he flees. Most people try to start at the middle of the verse. They want the fleeing without the submitting, and it does not work that way.

Full surrender means every part of you goes on the table. Body, soul, spirit, mind, will, emotions, money, marriage, calendar, future. It means YHWH takes the wheel and you stop negotiating about where He is allowed to drive. If there is a room in the house you are still keeping the key to, the enemy knows exactly which room it is, and that is the room he will keep working out of.

This is also where you deal with your own sin, not just your parent's. Anything you are still holding onto, still justifying, still hiding, bring it out and put it under the blood of Yahshua before you go any further.

Step 2 • Confess the Sins of the Bloodline

If they confess their iniquity and the iniquity of their fathers, in their trespass which they trespassed against me... then I will remember my covenant with Jacob; and also my covenant with Isaac, and also my covenant with Abraham.

LEVITICUS 26:40, 42

This is the step people push back on hardest. Why would YHWH ask me to confess something I did not do? You are not taking the blame for it and you are not repenting on their behalf. You are naming the door. You are standing before the Father and saying out loud, in agreement with Him, exactly what was done and that it was sin. Darkness runs on secrecy. Nothing loses its grip faster than being said out loud in the light.

There is a second reason. He wants you to know what you are dealing with. When you trace it back and see the actual thing that opened the door, the attack stops feeling random. It has a name, a source, and a date. Something you can see is something you can cut off.

HOW FAR BACK TO GO

- Go as far back as you can honestly trace. Parents first. Then grandparents. Then great grandparents if you know anything about them.
- Name the heavy ones specifically: bloodshed, sexual sin, abuse, occult involvement, witchcraft, divination, familiar spirits, idolatry, oaths, vows, dedications, secret societies, and covenants made with anything other than YHWH.
- Then cover the rest in one sweep. Most families have sin nobody talks about and nobody living remembers. Confess the unknown along with the known so nothing is left standing behind a locked door.

Step 3 • Be Willing to Fully Forgive

For if you forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you.

MATTHEW 6:14

Forgiveness is the root of deliverance. It is not one item on the list, it is the hinge the whole thing swings on, and it is the step the enemy will fight you hardest over. When a child is beaten, screamed at, used, or violated, and that is never dealt with, the hate and the rage and the shame settle down into the deep places and harden there. A stronghold forms. Spirits do not attach to empty air. They attach to that, and they feed on it for decades.

Underneath unforgiveness there is almost always pride. Pride is sneaky and it will dress itself up as something noble: I am protecting myself, I am standing up for what is right, I am not going to let them off the hook. What it really is, is a claim to hold a debt that belongs to YHWH. Humility is what lets it go. That is why humility is the root of forgiveness and pride is the root of unforgiveness.

Vengeance is mine, and recompense, at the time when their foot slides.

DEUTERONOMY 32:35

Releasing your parent is not saying it was fine. It is not saying it was small. It is not clearing them of anything. It is handing the case file to the only Judge who can actually try it, and taking your own hands off it. Their judgment rests with Him. Yours does too.

If your feelings are nowhere near this yet, say it anyway and tell the Father the truth about where you are. He is not asking you to fake an emotion. He is asking for your cooperation. He will do the inner healing after, and He is very good at it.

Step 4 • Break Every Ungodly Soul Tie

A soul tie is a real bond between two people. Scripture shows us the principle plainly: joining yourself to someone ties you to them, and joining yourself to the Master makes you one spirit with Him (1 Corinthians 6:16 and 17). Some ties are good and YHWH built them on purpose. Husband and wife. Parent and child. Covenant friendship, the way David and Jonathan were knit together.

The bond between a parent and a child is one YHWH designed, and it is supposed to be one of the safest things a person ever has. Abuse corrupts it. When a parent uses that bond as a leash instead of a shelter, the tie is still there, but now it runs the wrong direction, and everything operating on that parent has a cord running straight into the child.

Breaking an ungodly soul tie does not break the command to honor your father and mother, and it does not mean you stop loving them or praying for them. It cuts the corrupted cord the enemy has been feeding through. Being related by blood does not obligate you to stay spiritually fused to someone who will not turn from evil.

WHAT TO BREAK

- Ties formed through abuse, whether physical, verbal, or sexual.
- Ties formed through fear, control, manipulation, and intimidation.
- Ties formed through unhealthy dependence, on either side.
- Ties formed through any words spoken over you: curses, labels, predictions, and dedications.

Step 5 • Break the Curse Line

...whatever you bind on earth will have been bound in heaven; and whatever you release on earth will have been released in heaven.

MATTHEW 16:19

Behold, I give you authority to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy. Nothing will in any way hurt you.

LUKE 10:19

Now the ground is cleared. You have surrendered, you have confessed the bloodline, you have forgiven, and you have cut the cords. The curse line has nothing left propping it up, and it is time to cut it.

Do it in two motions. First ask the Father to break it, because you have done what He asked of you in the first four steps. Then take the authority He has already given you in Yahshua and speak to it directly. Do not ask the curse line nicely. Address it and command it, every strand, every root, every link, from both sides of the family, as far back as it runs. Broken, severed, finished, in the name of Yahshua.

Step 6 • Command the Spirits to Leave

With the curse line cut, there is nothing left for them to hold onto, and now you engage them directly. Say it out loud. The sword of the Spirit is the word of YHWH (Ephesians 6:17), and a sword in the sheath does not cut anything. Yahshua cast out spirits by speaking to them, and He gave that same authority to those who follow Him.

Speak plainly and speak with authority, not with volume. You are not persuading them and you are not negotiating with them. You are serving an eviction notice that has already been signed in blood. Name what you know is there, then sweep up whatever you have not named, and tell them where they are going and that they are not coming back.

One more time, because it is the whole point of the order: if you jump straight to this step without the first five, their legal ground has not been removed, and they will not leave. That is not a failure of authority. It is a failure of sequence.

THE BATTLE PRAYER

Pray this out loud. Out loud matters. Fill in every blank with real names and real things, and do not rush any part of it. If you need to stop and weep in the middle of it, stop and weep, then keep going.

PART ONE · THE FULL SURRENDER

Heavenly Father, I come to You in the name of Yahshua. I surrender myself to You completely. My body, my soul, my spirit, my mind, my will, my emotions, my past and my future, I put all of it in Your hands right now. I am not my own anymore. You are my Master, and I submit to You. Take the lead of my life and take it wherever You want it to go. I turn from every sin of my own that I have been holding onto, and I ask You to forgive me and wash me clean in the blood of Yahshua. I submit to You first, Father, so that I can resist the enemy and watch him flee.

PART TWO · CONFESSING THE SINS OF THE BLOODLINE

Father, I come before You now and I confess the sins of my bloodline. I confess the sins of my father _____ and my mother _____. I specifically confess before You the sin of _____. I confess the sins of my grandparents _____, and specifically the sin of _____. And Father, for every sin in my family line on both sides that I do not know about and cannot name, every oath, every vow, every covenant, every dedication, every act of bloodshed, every dealing with witchcraft, divination, familiar spirits or idolatry, every sexual sin and every act of violence, I confess all of it before You now. I am not defending it, covering it, or excusing it. It was sin, it was against You, and I agree with You about it. I ask You to forgive my bloodline and to blot out its record by the blood of Yahshua.

PART THREE · FORGIVENESS

Father, I choose to forgive. I forgive my father _____ for _____. I forgive my mother _____ for _____. I forgive them for what they did to me, for what they failed to do for me, and for what it cost me. I am not saying it was small and I am not saying it was right. I am saying I release it into Your hands. Vengeance belongs to You and not to me. Their judgment belongs to You and not to me. I let them go. I lay down every right I have been holding to stay angry, to get even, to hate, and to stay bitter. Father, I repent of the pride in me that wanted to keep holding that debt over them, and I ask You for the humility to keep on forgiving. Where my feelings have not caught up to this yet, I am asking You to heal me. I release these people into Your hands right now.

PART FOUR · BREAKING UNGODLY SOUL TIES

Father, in the name of Yahshua I break every ungodly soul tie between me and _____. Every cord, every bond, every tie of the soul formed through abuse, through fear, through control, through manipulation, or through sin, I break it and I sever it now in the name of Yahshua. I take back every piece of myself that was tied up in them, and I give back every piece of them that was tied up in me. I honor them as the one You used to bring me into this world, but I will not stay joined to them in their sin. Cleanse those places in me and join me to You alone.

PART FIVE · BREAKING THE CURSE LINE

Father, I have surrendered to You, I have confessed the sins of my bloodline, I have forgiven, and I have broken every ungodly soul tie. I now ask You to break the generational curse line running into my life. And by the authority You have given me in Yahshua, I speak to it directly. Curse line, I break you. Every strand, every root, every link, every inch of you, from every generation and from both sides of my family, I break you and I cut you off now in the name of Yahshua. You are finished. You have no path into my life, no path into my marriage, no path into my children, and no path into my children's children. Every legal ground, every claim, and every right of access you have ever had is revoked by the blood of Yahshua.

PART SIX · COMMANDING THE SPIRITS TO LEAVE

Now I speak to every demonic spirit that has been working in my life through that curse line. Your ground is gone. Your claim is broken. You have nothing left to hold. In the name of Yahshua I command you to go. Every spirit of fear, every spirit of torment, every spirit of rage, every spirit of lust, every spirit of death, every unclean spirit, every spirit that came down my bloodline, every one I have named and every one I have not, I command you to leave me now. You will not stay. You will not hide. You will not come back. Go where Yahshua sends you and do not return. I belong to YHWH, I am covered by the blood of Yahshua, and this house is His.

Father, fill every place they have left with Your Spirit. Fill me until there is no empty room left for them to come back to. Thank You for my freedom. In the name of Yahshua, amen.

After the prayer: holding the ground

Yahshua warned about a house that gets swept clean and then left empty. The spirit comes back, finds the place swept and in order and unoccupied, and brings seven worse than itself (Matthew 12:43 to 45). Deliverance is the beginning of the work, not the end of it. An empty house is an invitation.

FILL THE HOUSE

- Get into the Word every day. Not as a ritual, as food.
- Worship. Out loud, in your house, in your car. It changes the atmosphere of a room and of a person.
- Keep the Sabbath and keep the rest. Freedom holds better in a life that has rhythm in it.
- Stay in fellowship. Isolation is where the counterattack does its best work.
- Keep short accounts with forgiveness. The moment offense starts to harden again, deal with it that day.
- Walk in obedience. Every instruction you obey is one more door you are not leaving unlocked.

Expect a counterattack, and do not panic when it comes. Old thoughts will knock on the door to see if the locks were really changed. A returning thought is not proof that nothing happened. It is a test of whether you will let it back in. You do not have to fight the whole war again. You already broke the ground it was standing on. Refuse it, say so out loud, and keep walking.

And be patient with the healing. Cutting a cord takes a moment. Growing up healthy underneath where that cord used to be takes time, and YHWH is not in a hurry with people He loves.
