WHERE THIS PICKS UP

The Question That Comes Next

The first teaching showed that YHWH married Israel at Sinai, divorced the northern house for her unfaithfulness, and then died in the flesh as Yahshua so He could lawfully take her back. Two sticks, one hand.

This teaching answers the question that comes next. If He came back for a bride, who is she now? And what does that make you?

YHWH is the Creator's name. Yahshua is the Hebrew name of the Messiah.

LINK ONE

Hebrew Means One Who Crossed Over

Start with the word itself. The Hebrew word Ivri, which we say as "Hebrew," comes from the root avar, meaning to pass over, to cross over, to go through to the other side.

The first man called by that name is Abraham:

Genesis 14:13

"One who had escaped came and told Abram the Hebrew."

Why was he called that? Because of what he did:

Joshua 24:2-3

"Your fathers lived of old time beyond the River... I took your father Abraham from beyond the River, and led him throughout all the land of Canaan."

He was on one side. YHWH called him. He left everything he knew, crossed over, and never went back.

That is what the name means. Not a bloodline. A crossing.

And that is exactly what happened to you:

John 5:24

"Most certainly I tell you, he who hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life, and doesn't come into judgment, but has passed out of death into life."

Colossians 1:13

"...who delivered us out of the power of darkness, and translated us into the Kingdom of the Son of his love."

Out of one thing. Into another. You crossed over.

LINK TWO

Faith Makes You Abraham's Seed

Now, does that crossing actually make you family? Or are you standing outside watching someone else's inheritance?

Scripture answers it directly, and it is not subtle:

Galatians 3:7

"Know therefore that those who are of faith are children of Abraham."

Galatians 3:29

"If you are Messiah's, then you are Abraham's offspring and heirs according to promise."

Notice how the promise was set up in the first place. Abraham was counted righteous before he was circumcised, so that the promise could reach people who came to YHWH the same way he did:

Romans 4:11, 16

"...that he might be the father of all those who believe... For this cause it is of faith, that it may be according to grace, to the end that the promise may be sure to all the offspring."

Abraham is the father of everyone who crosses over the way he crossed over.

LINK THREE

You Are Grafted Into Israel

Paul takes it further. He does not say you get a separate arrangement alongside Israel. He says you are put into Israel:

Romans 11:17

"But if some of the branches were broken off, and you, being a wild olive, were grafted in among them and became partaker with them of the root and of the richness of the olive tree..."

A graft is not a guest. A graft is fed by the root and becomes part of the tree.

Ephesians 2:12-13

"...you were at that time separate from Messiah, alienated from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of the promise... But now in Messiah Yahshua you who once were far off are made near in the blood of Messiah."

Read that carefully. Alienated from the commonwealth. You cannot be alienated from something you were never part of. And now you are brought near, not introduced for the first time.

Ephesians 2:19

"So then you are no longer strangers and foreigners, but you are fellow citizens with the saints and of the household of Elohim."

And this is not a new idea Paul invented. It was always the rule:

Ezekiel 47:22

"You shall divide it by lot for an inheritance to you and to the aliens who live among you... they shall be to you as the native-born among the children of Israel. They shall have inheritance with you among the tribes of Israel."

Romans 9:6, 8

"For they are not all Israel that are of Israel... it is not the children of the flesh who are children of Elohim, but the children of the promise are counted as heirs."

LINK FOUR

Judah, and What You Actually Are

Here is where people get this wrong in both directions, so let us be careful and let Scripture say exactly what it says.

The King came from Judah. That much is plain:

Genesis 49:10

"The scepter will not depart from Judah, nor the ruler's staff from between his feet, until he comes to whom it belongs."

Revelation 5:5

"...Behold, the Lion who is of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has overcome."

Hebrews 7:14

"For it is evident that our Master has sprung out of Judah."

And you are made a joint heir with Him. Not a servant of the household. An heir alongside the Son:

Romans 8:15-17

"...you received the Spirit of adoption, by whom we cry, 'Abba! Father!' The Spirit himself testifies with our spirit that we are children of Elohim; and if children, then heirs: heirs of Elohim and joint heirs with Messiah."

Joint heir. Whatever belongs to the King from Judah, you inherit alongside Him. You live under that scepter. That is your King, that is your line, that is your inheritance.

And inwardly, you are a Yehudi. Paul says this outright:

Romans 2:28-29

"For he is not a Jew who is one outwardly... but he is a Jew who is one inwardly, and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, not in the letter; whose praise is not from men, but from Elohim."

Now catch what Paul just did, because it is easy to read straight past.

Yehudah, the name Judah, means praise. Leah gave him that name for that reason:

Genesis 29:35

"She conceived again, and bore a son. She said, 'This time will I praise YHWH.' Therefore she named him Judah."

So when Paul defines the inward Jew and then ends the sentence with "whose praise is not from men, but from Elohim," he is not adding a nice closing thought. He is landing on the meaning of the name itself.

An inward Yehudi is one whose praise comes from YHWH.

CAREFUL HERE

One Thing to Be Careful About

You will hear people say "we are the tribe of Judah now." Be careful there, and here is why.

In Scripture, tribe is reckoned through the father's house, by physical descent:

Numbers 1:18

"They assembled all the congregation together... and they declared their ancestry after their families, by their fathers' houses."

More importantly, the whole two sticks prophecy depends on Judah and Israel staying two distinct houses that get joined:

Jeremiah 31:31

"Behold, the days come," says YHWH, "that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah."

WHY IT MATTERS

If everyone simply becomes Judah, there is no second stick left to join, and the promise of Ezekiel 37 has nothing to fulfill.

So we do not need to claim the tribe. What Scripture actually gives is better, and it holds up under any question:

You crossed over, so you are Hebrew in the meaning of the word.

You are Abraham's seed by faith.

You are grafted into Israel and fed by her root.

You are joint heir with the King who came from Judah, living under His scepter.

You are a Yehudi inwardly, circumcised in the heart, whose praise comes from YHWH and not from men.

Nobody can take any of those from you, and none of them require a genealogy.

CLOSING

What This Means for You

You are not a visitor at someone else's table. You are not a late addition to a story that belongs to another people.

You were far off, and you were brought near by blood. You crossed over the way Abraham crossed over. You were grafted into the tree, you feed on the root, and you are an heir with the King.

1 Peter 2:9-10

"But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for Elohim's own possession... who in time past were no people, but now are Elohim's people."

Those words in 1 Peter come straight out of Exodus 19, the wedding proposal at Sinai. And "no people who are now His people" is Hosea, spoken over the divorced house.

The Husband died to get her back. And when He rose, He brought you home with her.
