

Discerning the Jezebel Spirit

Seeing the Pattern Clearly Without Losing Your Own Heart

A Deep Dive Through 1 and 2 Kings, Revelation 2, and the Call to Examine Ourselves

Scripture quoted from the World English Bible, divine name rendered YHWH, Elohim, and Adonai, with Yahshua and Messiah restored. Strong's numbers are given for word studies.

THE HEART OF IT

Few names get thrown around in the body of Messiah as quickly as Jezebel. Some use it to expose real spiritual warfare. Others use it as a weapon to shut down anyone who disagrees with them. Both cannot be right.

Scripture gives us the full picture: who Jezebel was, how she operated, why Yahshua himself put her name on a teacher in Thyatira, and what he expects of his people when that pattern shows up. It also gives us a mirror. The goal of discernment is never to win an argument or label a person. It is to see clearly, walk free, and help others walk free, starting with our own hearts.

SECTION I

Not Flesh and Blood

For our wrestling is not against flesh and blood, but against the principalities, against the powers, against the world's rulers of the darkness of this age, and against the spiritual forces of wickedness in the heavenly places.

EPHESIANS 6:12

Paul's word for wrestling is pale (G3823), hand to hand combat, the kind of fight where you are close enough to feel the other man's weight. That is how spiritual warfare feels in a family, a marriage, or an assembly. It is personal and it is close. But Paul says the real opponent is not the person in front of you. People can be used, influenced, and stirred up, but the war behind the scenes is spiritual.

For though we walk in the flesh, we don't wage war according to the flesh; for the weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh, but mighty before Elohim to the throwing down of strongholds, throwing down imaginations and every high thing that is exalted against the knowledge of Elohim and bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Messiah,

2 CORINTHIANS 10:3-5

Notice what gets thrown down: strongholds, imaginations, and every high thing exalted against the knowledge of Elohim. The battleground is thoughts, and the weapon is bringing every thought captive to the obedience of Messiah. That matters for this whole study, because the pattern we are about to look at works through thoughts: fear, intimidation, flattery, and false spirituality.

AN HONEST WORD ABOUT THE NAME

The exact phrase Jezebel spirit does not appear in Scripture. What Scripture does show is a clear pattern of operation in the life of Queen Jezebel, and then, generations later, Yahshua himself takes her name and puts it on a teacher in Thyatira (Revelation 2:20). That tells us her pattern outlived her. When we speak of the Jezebel spirit, we are naming that pattern and the spiritual forces of wickedness that drive it (Ephesians 6:12), and we should hold ourselves to what the text actually shows.

SECTION II

Who Jezebel Was

Ahab the son of Omri did that which was evil in YHWH's sight above all that were before him. As if it had been a light thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, he took as wife Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Sidonians, and went and served Baal, and worshiped him. He raised up an altar for Baal in the house of Baal, which he had built in Samaria. Ahab made the Asherah; and Ahab did more yet to provoke YHWH, the Elohim of Israel, to anger than all the kings of Israel who were before him.

1 KINGS 16:30-33

Jezebel was not an Israelite. She was the daughter of Ethbaal, king of the Sidonians, and she came into Israel's palace carrying Baal with her. Scripture ties Ahab's marriage to her directly to Israel's plunge into Baal worship: an altar for Baal, a house for Baal in Samaria, and the Asherah. Her influence did not stay in the palace. By the time of Mount Carmel there were four hundred fifty prophets of Baal and four hundred prophets of the Asherah who eat at Jezebel's table (1 Kings 18:19). She fed a whole network of false voices.

She Went After the Prophets

for when Jezebel cut off YHWH's prophets, Obadiah took one hundred prophets, and hid them by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water.)

1 KINGS 18:4

Jezebel understood something. As long as YHWH's prophets were speaking, Israel had a voice calling it back to the covenant. So she cut them off. Obadiah had to hide one hundred of them in caves and feed them bread and water (1 Kings 18:13). The first target of this pattern is always the voice that calls people back to YHWH.

She Sent a Threat, Not an Army

Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, and how he had killed all the prophets with the sword. Then Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah, saying, "So let the gods do to me, and more also, if I don't make your life as the life of one of them by tomorrow about this time!"

1 KINGS 19:1-2

Look at the timing. Elijah had just watched fire fall from heaven on Carmel. The people had fallen on their faces crying, YHWH, he is Elohim. And Jezebel did not send soldiers. She sent a message. One threat, delivered by one messenger, and the man who called down fire ran for his life (1 Kings 19:3). Intimidation was her weapon, and it worked because it went straight for the mind.

She Worked Through Someone Else's Authority

The clearest picture of how Jezebel operated is the story of Naboth's vineyard. Ahab wanted the vineyard. Naboth refused to sell the inheritance of his fathers, which the instructions of YHWH protected. Ahab went home and sulked on his bed and would not eat. Then Jezebel stepped in:

Jezebel his wife said to him, "Do you now govern the kingdom of Israel? Arise, and eat bread, and let your heart be merry. I will give you the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite." So she wrote letters in Ahab's name, and sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters to the elders and to the nobles who were in his city, who lived with Naboth. She wrote in the letters, saying, "Proclaim a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people. Set two men, wicked fellows, before him, and let them testify against him, saying, 'You cursed Elohim and the king!' Then carry him out, and stone him to death."

1 KINGS 21:7-10

Every detail is a mark of the pattern. She wrote the letters in Ahab's name and sealed them with his seal, using authority that was not hers. She worked through the elders and nobles so her own hands stayed clean. She wrapped the whole thing in religion: proclaim a fast. She used false witnesses and a false charge of blasphemy. And an innocent man died so that her husband could have what he wanted (1 Kings 21:11-16). She did not fight in the open. She fought behind the scenes.

She Stirred Up Her Husband

But there was no one like Ahab, who sold himself to do that which was evil in YHWH's sight, whom Jezebel his wife stirred up.

1 KINGS 21:25

The Hebrew word for stirred up is suth (H5496). It means to prick, to goad, to incite, to entice. Pay attention to where else Scripture uses it. Moses uses it for the close family member or friend who entices you secretly to serve other gods (Deuteronomy 13:6). It is used of Satan, who moved David to number Israel (1 Chronicles 21:1), and when YHWH tells Satan, you incited me against him, speaking of Job (Job 2:3). The same word that describes the accuser's work describes Jezebel's work on her husband. That is Ephesians 6:12 in the Hebrew Scriptures: a person was the instrument, but the incitement had a source.

Notice too that Ahab sold himself, makar (H4376), to do evil. Jezebel stirred him up, but Ahab made the sale. Scripture never lets the passive partner off the hook.

Her End Came Exactly as YHWH Said

Elijah spoke YHWH's word that the dogs would eat Jezebel by the rampart of Jezreel (1 Kings 21:23). Years later Jehu rode into Jezreel. When King Joram asked him, Is it peace, Jehu answered:

When Joram saw Jehu, he said, "Is it peace, Jehu?" He answered, "What peace, so long as the prostitution of your mother Jezebel and her witchcraft abound?"

2 KINGS 9:22

The word for prostitution is zenunim (H2183), which Scripture uses for both sexual unfaithfulness and idolatry, and the word for witchcraft is keshephim (H3785), sorcery. Jezebel painted her eyes and adorned her head and looked out the window (2 Kings 9:30), still trying to control the moment with appearance and words. It did not save her.

She was thrown down, and it happened just as YHWH's word through Elijah said (2 Kings 9:36-37). The pattern always looks powerful. It never has the last word.

SECTION III

Yahshua Names Her in Thyatira

The Son of Elohim, who has his eyes like a flame of fire, and his feet are like burnished brass, says these things: I know your works, your love, faith, service, patient endurance, and that your last works are more than the first.

REVELATION 2:18-19

Before Yahshua corrects Thyatira, he commends them. This was not a dead assembly. It had love, faith, service, endurance, and growing works. That is sobering. The Jezebel pattern can operate inside an assembly that is doing a lot of things right.

But I have this against you, that you tolerate your woman, Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess. She teaches and seduces my servants to commit sexual immorality, and to eat things sacrificed to idols. I gave her time to repent, but she refuses to repent of her sexual immorality. Behold, I will throw her into a bed, and those who commit adultery with her into great oppression, unless they repent of her works. I will kill her children with Death, and all the assemblies will know that I am he who searches the minds and hearts. I will give to each one of you according to your deeds.

REVELATION 2:20-23

Tolerated

Yahshua's charge is not only against the woman. It is against the assembly: you tolerate. The word is aphiemi (G863), to let alone, to leave be, to let go on. The same pattern shows up in Ahab. Jezebel could not have done what she did in Israel without a king who let her. In Thyatira she could not have taught and seduced without an assembly that let her. The Jezebel pattern always needs an Ahab. Leadership that avoids conflict, looks away, and keeps the peace at any cost gives it room to grow.

A Self Appointed Voice

She calls herself a prophetess, prophetis (G4398). The title was her own. She claimed spiritual authority and used it to teach and to seduce, planao (G4105), to lead astray, to cause to wander. The fruit was sexual immorality, porneia (G4202), and eating things sacrificed to idols, eidolothuton (G1494). That is the same fruit Balaam produced in Israel (Revelation 2:14; Numbers 25:1-2). Spiritual language, unholy fruit.

Time to Repent

I gave her time to repent, but she refuses. The word is metanoeo (G3340), to change your mind, to turn. Yahshua gave her a window of mercy. That is his heart even toward someone operating in this. Compare Ahab: when Elijah pronounced judgment, Ahab tore his clothes, put on sackcloth, and fasted, and YHWH said, See how Ahab humbles himself before me? and delayed the judgment (1 Kings 21:27-29). Scripture records no such moment for Jezebel. The deepest mark of this pattern is not manipulation. It is the refusal to turn when YHWH is still offering the chance.

Yahshua also calls those who commit adultery with her to repent of her works. Joining yourself to the pattern, following it, and benefiting from it all count. Then he says, I am he who searches the minds and hearts. The word for search is ereunao (G2045), to investigate, and the word for minds is literally kidneys, nephros (G3510), the inmost parts. Yahshua is quoting YHWH's own words in Jeremiah:

The heart is deceitful above all things and it is exceedingly corrupt. Who can know it? "I, YHWH, search the mind. I try the heart, even to give every man according to his ways, according to the fruit of his doings."

JEREMIAH 17:9-10

The Promise to the Overcomer

He who overcomes, and he who keeps my works to the end, to him I will give authority over the nations. He will rule them with a rod of iron, shattering them like clay pots; as I also have received of my Father: and I will give him the morning star.

REVELATION 2:26-28

To the rest in Thyatira who did not hold this teaching, Yahshua says, I am not putting any other burden on you. Hold that which you have firmly until I come (Revelation 2:24-25). The one who overcomes, nikao (G3528), receives authority, exousia (G1849). Jezebel grabbed authority that was never hers. Yahshua gives real authority to the ones who refuse her pattern and hold fast to him.

SECTION IV

The Marks of the Pattern

Putting Kings and Revelation side by side, Scripture shows us consistent marks. None of these alone proves anything, and every one of them can show up in any of us on a bad day. What we are looking for is a pattern that is persistent and unrepentant.

1. Control through manipulation. Working behind the scenes, through other people, instead of in the open. Pressure, guilt, and flattery instead of honest conversation. 1 Kings 21:7-10
2. Borrowed or self appointed authority. Using someone else's name and seal, or giving yourself a spiritual title no one tested or confirmed. 1 Kings 21:8; Revelation 2:20
3. Intimidation. Threats aimed at the mind to make people run, go silent, or give up. 1 Kings 19:2
4. Silencing the prophetic voice. Targeting those who call people back to YHWH, especially leaders and intercessors, by isolating, discrediting, or cutting them off. 1 Kings 18:4, 13
5. Religious cover. Wrapping selfish goals in spiritual language: a fast, a word from Elohim, a prophecy. 1 Kings 21:9; Revelation 2:20
6. Seduction into compromise. Leading people toward idolatry and sexual immorality, often by making sin look normal. 1 Kings 16:31-33; Revelation 2:20
7. Refusal to repent. Resisting correction and always needing to be right, even when YHWH is giving time and space to turn. Revelation 2:21

This Is Not About Gender

Jezebel was a woman, and so was the teacher in Thyatira, but the pattern is not female. Scripture shows the same marks in men. Absalom sat at the city gate, told every man with a case that his matter was good and right but there was no one to hear him, and stole the hearts of the men of Israel from his father (2 Samuel 15:1-6). That is manipulation working behind the scenes against rightful authority. In the assembly John wrote to, a man named Diotrephes loved to be first, refused to receive the apostles, accused them with wicked words, and threw people out of the assembly who welcomed them:

I wrote to the assembly, but Diotrephes, who loves to be first among them, doesn't accept what we say. Therefore if I come, I will call attention to his deeds which he does, unjustly accusing us with wicked words. Not content with this, neither does he himself receive the brothers, and those who would, he forbids and throws out of the assembly.

3 JOHN 9-10

The phrase loves to be first is one Greek word, philoproteuo (G5383), fond of being first. Control, accusation, and silencing others, all operating in a man. Using this teaching against women as a group, or against any woman who speaks with strength, is itself a misuse of Scripture.

And the Ahab Side

Ahab sulked on his bed when he did not get his way (1 Kings 21:4), let his wife act in his name, then got up and took the vineyard anyway (1 Kings 21:16). Passivity is not innocence. A husband, father, or leader who avoids hard conversations, hands off his authority, and enjoys the results of someone else's sin is part of the pattern too. Yahshua's rebuke in Thyatira fell on the ones who tolerated.

SECTION V

What It Does to a Man of Elohim

When he saw that, he arose, and ran for his life, and came to Beersheba, which belongs to Judah, and left his servant there. But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a juniper tree. Then he requested for himself that he might die, and said, "It is enough. Now, O YHWH, take away my life; for I am not better than my fathers."

1 KINGS 19:3-4

This is the same Elijah who stood alone against eight hundred fifty false prophets. One threat and he is under a juniper tree asking to die. James reminds us that Elijah was a man with a nature like ours (James 5:17). If it hit him, it can hit you. Watch the fruit in his life: fear, running, isolation (he left his servant behind), exhaustion, and despair. He even said, I alone am left (1 Kings 19:10). That is what this attack is designed to produce in the one who speaks for YHWH.

How YHWH Restored Him

Look at how tender YHWH is with his worn out prophet. He does not scold him first. He feeds him:

He lay down and slept under a juniper tree; and behold, an angel touched him, and said to him, "Arise and eat!" He looked, and behold, there was at his head a cake baked on the coals, and a jar of water. He ate and drank, and lay down again. YHWH's angel came again the second time, and touched him, and said, "Arise and eat, because the journey is too great for you." He arose, and ate and drank, and went in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights to Horeb, Elohim's Mountain.

1 KINGS 19:5-8

- Rest and food. Twice the angel touched him and said, Arise and eat, because the journey is too great for you. Sometimes the first step of deliverance is sleep and a meal.
- His voice, not the noise. YHWH was not in the wind, the earthquake, or the fire, but in a still small voice (1 Kings 19:11-12). The Hebrew is qol (H6963) demamah (H1827) daqqa (H1851), a voice of thin quiet, a sound of gentle stillness. Jezebel's weapon was a loud threat. YHWH's answer was a quiet voice.
- The truth about being alone. Elijah thought he was the only one left. YHWH said, I reserved seven thousand in Israel who had not bowed to Baal (1 Kings 19:18). Isolation lies to you.
- A new assignment. YHWH sent him to anoint Jehu, who would bring Jezebel's end, and Elisha, who would carry on after him (1 Kings 19:15-16). He did not leave Elijah hiding. He sent him back into purpose.

For Elohim didn't give us a spirit of fear, but of power, love, and self-control.

2 TIMOTHY 1:7

SECTION VI

Discerning Rightly

Discernment is real and it is a gift. Paul lists discerning of spirits, diakrisis (G1253), among the gifts of the Spirit (1 Corinthians 12:10), and Hebrews says mature believers by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern good and evil (Hebrews 5:14). But discernment has to be tested, just like everything else.

Beloved, don't believe every spirit, but test the spirits, whether they are of Elohim, because many false prophets have gone out into the world.

1 JOHN 4:1

The word for test is dokimazo (G1381), to examine and prove, the way metal is tested. Yahshua gave us the test to use:

Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly are ravening wolves. By their fruits you will know them. Do you gather grapes from thorns, or figs from thistles? Even so, every good tree produces good fruit; but the corrupt tree produces evil fruit. A good tree can't produce evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree produce good fruit. Every tree that doesn't grow good fruit is cut down, and thrown into the fire. Therefore by their fruits you will know them.

MATTHEW 7:15-20

Fruit Questions

James lays out two kinds of wisdom side by side, and it makes a practical checklist:

But if you have bitter jealousy and selfish ambition in your heart, don't boast and don't lie against the truth. This wisdom is not that which comes down from above, but is earthly, sensual, and demonic. For where jealousy and selfish ambition are, there is confusion and every evil deed. But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceful, gentle, reasonable, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy. Now the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace.

JAMES 3:14-18

- Does this influence produce peace or confusion?
- Does it lead people toward Yahshua or toward itself?
- Does it receive correction, or does it always have to be right?
- Does it work in the open, or behind the scenes and through others?
- Is the fruit love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faith, gentleness, and self control, or is it strife, jealousy, divisions, and sorcery (Galatians 5:19-23)?

Guardrails Against False Discernment

- Hear both sides. He who pleads his cause first seems right; until another comes and questions him (Proverbs 18:17). Many people have been called Jezebel by someone who told the story first.
- Two or three witnesses. A matter is established by two or three witnesses, not by one person's feelings (Deuteronomy 19:15).
- Follow Yahshua's process. Go to the person first, then with one or two others, then to the assembly (Matthew 18:15-17). Labeling someone publicly skips every step he gave us.
- Do not weaponize the name. If you disagree with a strong woman, a leader who corrected you, or a spouse who will not do what you want, that does not make them Jezebel. Using the label to win is manipulation, which is the very pattern you claim to be exposing.
- Aim for restoration. You who are spiritual must restore such a one in a spirit of gentleness; looking to yourself so that you also aren't tempted (Galatians 6:1).

DISCERNMENT OR ACCUSATION?

Discernment sees clearly and then prays, protects, and confronts in love. Accusation labels, spreads, and isolates. The accuser of our brothers accuses them day and night (Revelation 12:10). If our discernment sounds like him, it did not come from the Spirit.

SECTION VII

The Mirror: Examine Your Own Heart

Here is the hard truth. None of us is above these tendencies rising in our own flesh. When we feel threatened, unseen, or out of control, any of us can reach for manipulation, guilt, pressure, or spiritual language to get our way. Yahshua put the order plainly:

Don't judge, so that you won't be judged. For with whatever judgment you judge, you will be judged; and with whatever measure you measure, it will be measured to you. Why do you see the speck that is in your brother's eye, but don't consider the beam that is in your own eye? Or how will you tell your brother, 'Let me remove the speck from your eye;' and behold, the beam is in your own eye? You hypocrite! First remove the beam out of your own eye, and then you can see clearly to remove the speck out of your brother's eye.

MATTHEW 7:1-5

Yahshua does not tell us to ignore the speck. He tells us to deal with the beam first, and then you can see clearly. Self examination is not the opposite of discernment. It is what makes discernment accurate.

Search me, Elohim, and know my heart. Try me, and know my thoughts. See if there is any wicked way in me, and lead me in the everlasting way.

PSALM 139:23-24

David's word for search is chaqar (H2713), to penetrate, to examine intimately. He is inviting YHWH to dig. That is the same thing Yahshua said he does in Revelation 2:23. The difference is that David asked for it.

Where the Pattern Takes Root

- Pride. Pride goes before destruction, and an arrogant spirit before a fall (Proverbs 16:18). Pride is what refuses to repent. Elohim resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble (James 4:6).
- Jealousy and selfish ambition. Where jealousy and selfish ambition are, there is confusion and every evil deed (James 3:16).
- Fear. The need to control often grows out of fear of being hurt, left, or overlooked. The fear of man proves to be a snare, but whoever puts his trust in YHWH is kept safe (Proverbs 29:25).
- Unhealed offense. Anger held overnight gives place to the devil (Ephesians 4:26-27). Unforgiveness is an open door.

SAY IT PLAINLY

The first place to look for Jezebel is in the mirror, and the first person to deliver is you. A humble heart that keeps short accounts with YHWH is very hard ground for this pattern to grow in.

SECTION VIII

Walking Free: Deliverance Through Forgiveness

If It Has Operated Against You

Maybe you have been manipulated, threatened, silenced, or pushed out, in a family, a marriage, or a ministry. The wound is real. And healing begins where every deliverance begins: forgiveness. Forgiveness does not mean what happened was fine, and it does not mean you put yourself back under control. It means you release the person to YHWH and let him be the judge.

For if you forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. But if you don't forgive men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

MATTHEW 6:14-15

Don't seek revenge yourselves, beloved, but give place to Elohim's wrath. For it is written, "Vengeance belongs to me; I will repay, says Adonai."

ROMANS 12:19

Let all bitterness, wrath, anger, outcry, and slander be put away from you, with all malice. And be kind to one another, tender hearted, forgiving each other, just as Elohim also in Messiah forgave you.

EPHESIANS 4:31-32

Then break agreement with what the attack spoke over you. You are not alone. You are not finished. Your voice is not cancelled. Yahshua has given you authority over all the power of the enemy (Luke 10:19). Submit to Elohim, resist the devil, and he will flee (James 4:7). Like Elijah, rest, eat, listen for his voice, and step back into your assignment.

If You See It in Yourself

Do not run from it and do not hide it. Yahshua gave Jezebel time to repent, and he is giving you time now. That is mercy, not condemnation.

He who conceals his sins doesn't prosper, but whoever confesses and renounces them finds mercy.

PROVERBS 28:13

If we confess our sins, he is faithful and righteous to forgive us the sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

1 JOHN 1:9

Confess it to YHWH. Where you have manipulated or silenced someone, go and make it right. Give back any authority you took that was not yours. Ask YHWH to heal the fear or pride underneath it, and invite people you trust to tell you the truth.

If You Are the One Who Tolerated It

Husbands, fathers, and leaders, hear Yahshua's words to Thyatira: you tolerate. Stop handing off your seal. Step back into your place with humility and courage. Address what needs addressing, the way Yahshua taught, in the open and in love (Matthew 18:15-17).

A PRAYER OF RELEASE

Father YHWH, search me and know my heart. Show me any wicked way in me. Where I have manipulated, controlled, pressured, or used spiritual words to get my way, I confess it and turn from it. Where I have tolerated what you hate, give me courage to stand.

Where this pattern has operated against me, I choose to forgive. I release every person who hurt me into your hands, and I let go of my right to repay. I break agreement with fear, isolation, and every threat spoken over my life. I receive your peace and your still small voice.

Fill me with your Spirit, not of fear, but of power, love, and self control. Give me eyes to discern rightly and a heart that restores instead of accuses. In the name of Yahshua. Amen.

SECTION IX

Walking It Out This Week

1. Read the story. Read 1 Kings 16 through 21 and 2 Kings 9 straight through, then Revelation 2:18-29. Let the text shape your picture, not the internet.
2. Pray Psalm 139:23-24 daily. Ask YHWH to search you before you look at anyone else.
3. Check your fruit. Pick one relationship and ask: do I bring peace or confusion here? Do I work in the open?
4. Forgive by name. If someone has controlled or silenced you, speak their name before YHWH and release them.
5. Retire the label. If you have called someone Jezebel in anger, ask YHWH whether you need to make it right.
6. Strengthen a silenced voice. Like Obadiah feeding the prophets in the cave, encourage someone who has been pushed down or shut out.
7. Rest. If you are worn out from warfare, do what YHWH did for Elijah: sleep, eat, and listen.

SECTION X

Word Study Key

- Pale, G3823. Wrestling, close hand to hand combat. Ephesians 6:12
- Suth, H5496. To prick, goad, incite, entice. 1 Kings 21:25; Deuteronomy 13:6; 1 Chronicles 21:1; Job 2:3
- Makar, H4376. To sell; Ahab sold himself to do evil. 1 Kings 21:25
- Zenunim, H2183. Prostitution, unfaithfulness; used for idolatry. 2 Kings 9:22
- Keshaphim, H3785. Sorcery, witchcraft. 2 Kings 9:22
- Aphiemi, G863. To let alone, let go on; tolerate. Revelation 2:20
- Prophetis, G4398. Prophetess; here a self given title. Revelation 2:20
- Planao, G4105. To lead astray, cause to wander, seduce. Revelation 2:20
- Porneia, G4202. Sexual immorality; also used for idolatry. Revelation 2:21
- Eidolothuton, G1494. Things sacrificed to idols. Revelation 2:14, 20
- Metanoeo, G3340. To change one's mind, to turn, repent. Revelation 2:21-22
- Ereunao, G2045. To search, investigate. Revelation 2:23
- Nephros, G3510. Kidneys; the inmost mind. Revelation 2:23; Jeremiah 17:10
- Nikao, G3528. To overcome, conquer, prevail. Revelation 2:26
- Exousia, G1849. Authority, rightful power. Revelation 2:26; Luke 10:19
